Teacher for all events: Marielle Levin

Location for all events:

Denver Center for Anthroposophic Therapies

840 26th Street, Denver, CO 80205

The classes are suitable for adults.

They give an opportunity to dive into the world of Light and Darkness, and Color and to experience the world, and ourselves differently as we deepen our understanding of creating these unique images.

Liane Collot d'Herbois based her work on the spiritual research of Rudolf Steiner. Her artistic paintings show the connection of the human being with the world of the spirit. She developed a unique therapeutic approach working with light, color and darkness in relation to thinking, feeling and will. Upon requests she taught this approach to artists, physicians and art therapist.

Marielle Levin is a graduate of the schooling of Light, Darkness and Colour in Wisconsin. She is certified as an Painting Therapist by the Section of the Anthroposophic Medicine at the Goetheanum. Marielle is a former Registered Nurse. She has taught children and adults for 25 years, primarily at the Denver Waldorf School, including 6 years as painting teacher.

Denver Center for Studies in Light, Color and Darkness Artistic and Therapeutic Painting and Charcoal Drawing

Schedule for April, May and June 2011

One-day Charcoal Light and Darkness Drawing

In each drawing we will create an image of a light filled space, with different interactions of light and darkness.

We will have conversations about the exercises in relation to light and darkness in the earth's atmosphere and in connection with the human being.

This class is suitable for adults. The charcoal exercises provide an excellent preparation for the study of therapeutic painting.

Dates: April 7, May 5, June 2

Times: 9 a.m. - 3 p.m., with breaks for lunch and snacks

Teacher: Marielle Levin

Cost for each class including materials: $45

Studio Time

For those who like a quiet space and some help with work in progress.

Dates: April 14, May 12, June 9

Times: 9 a.m. - 3 p.m., with breaks for lunch and snacks

Cost per day: $25

Please RSVP, call or email Marielle at mariellevin@comcast.net or 303-698-0530

One-day Introduction to Veil Painting

Beginning class in the method of veil painting. Landscapes, with their color transformations of earth, water and air, lend themselves well to the veil painting method. The classes are recommended for adults who have patience to slowly create images with transparent luminous colors, creating color nuances. The classes can be taken independently or used as the foundation for the four day veil painting course.

The introduction class to veil painting provides instruction, demonstration and practice of:

Using the waterline, veiling with relaxed rather than a tense brushstroke, ending brush strokes with water, gradating colors, direction of veils - direction of paper, no waterline, thirsty brush, lifting/scrubbing off paint, drying paper, testing paper for temperature.

The introduction class is a big help for people who take the four-day veil painting course.

Dates: April 21, May 19, June 16

Times: 9 a.m. - 3 p.m., with breaks for lunch and snacks

Teacher: Marielle Levin

Cost for each class including materials: $45

For registration call or email Marielle at mariellevin@comcast.net or 303-698-0530

Four-day Veil Painting course

Four days study of Light, Color and Darkness through Watercolor Veil Painting. The course gives an opportunity to immerse oneself into the world of light, darkness and color, and to experience the world - and ourselves - differently as we deepen our understanding of these uniquely creative images.

The images we paint are the cosmic processes of light, color and darkness. We see them in the atmosphere in the sky. They exist in the healthy human being according to the same laws. In the human being we relate light with thinking, color with feeling and darkness with the activity in the physical body. Painting the images helps our awareness of natural phenomena. They can also awaken a new understanding of the activity of spirit, soul and matter in us.

Each day will start with a short reading and conversation about the colors used during the course in relation to light and darkness in the earth's atmosphere and in connection with the human being.

This course is suitable for adults who have experience in veil painting, and provides an excellent preparation for the study of therapeutic painting.

If practice in veil painting technique is needed, the one day introduction to veil painting class listed above is recommended.

Dates: April 25-28, May 23-26, June 20-23

Times: 9 a.m. - 4 p.m., with breaks for lunch and snacks

Teacher: Marielle Levin

Cost for each class including materials $190
