

Light, Darkness and Color

according to the work of Liane Collot d'Herbois.

A unique approach to

Charcoal Drawing and Veil Painting

as a Path to the Spirit

Weekend workshops with Marielle Levin

October 6 -7, light and darkness; charcoal.

January 5-6, color; veil painting.

April 12-13, light and darkness; charcoal.

The Denver Waldorf School,

940 Fillmore St. Denver CO 80206,

$80 per weekend, $95 including materials,

For information/registration contact Marielle Levin at <mariellevin@comcast.net> 303-698-0530

or visit <ldcdenver.googlepages.com>

The workshops are part of several offered across the country by a variety of teachers. They are in support of an initiative by Painting Therapists Pamela Whitman, from California, and Marielle Levin, from Colorado, to create a formal education in Light, Darkness and Color, and training in Painting Therapy in the U.S.

An article on Liane Collot d'Herbois is featured in the fall 2007 issue of Lilipoh magazine.