

Some spaces still available. Registrations accepted until Sept. 13th.

Light, Color and Darkness

and the Connection to the Sevenfold Human Being

based on anthroposophic insights and the work of Liane Collot d'Herbois

Six-day Intensive Course

- An opportunity to dive into the world of Light, Color and Darkness and experience it as a path of self-development.
- Geared for adults with any level of art experience. Individuals are supported through one-to-one guidance in a non-judgmental environment.
- Charcoal exercises and watercolor veil painting of the interaction of Light, Color and Darkness - complete instruction is given in all techniques.

- Studies of the seven-fold human being connect us with the rainbow, color space, the planets, our organs and life processes, our biography, and the evolution of consciousness.
- We learn to see the world - and ourselves - differently as we develop our capacities of perception.
- Provides an excellent foundation for the study of Painting Therapy.
- Tuition: $350.

Location: Rudolf Steiner College, 9200 Fair Oaks Ave., Fair Oaks, CA, 95628

Dates: Monday, September 27 – Saturday, October 2, 2010

Teachers: Pamela Whitman, M.A., Painting Therapist & Sarah Parsons, Intern
Presentations by Kelly Sutton, M.D. & Lee Sturgeon-Day, Biography Pioneer

For course description, additional courses, and registration:
www.lightcoloranddarkness.org or call Pamela Whitman 530-477-7794