

Light, Color and Darkness in North America for Furthering the Work of Liane Collot d'Herbois

Curriculum for the fourth foundation course:

Light, Color and Darkness and the twelve-foldness of the Human Being

- Two days study of Light and Darkness through charcoal exercises
- Four days study of Light, Color and Darkness through watercolor veil painting
- Instruction and demonstration of techniques throughout the week, including:
 - charcoal drawing
 - preparing paper for veil painting
 - techniques of watercolor veil painting
- Study about the twelve-foldness of the human being in relation to the cosmic three-foldness of Light, Color and Darkness, including one presentation about the theme by Gerald Karnow M.D.
- Recommendations for long distance studies for those interested in pursuing the therapeutic program

This course is suitable for adults with any level of art experience, and provide an excellent preparation for the study of therapeutic painting. The course can also be followed independently as a path of self-development.

The courses do not have to be taken in sequence. Participants receive individual help with technic in both charcoal drawing and painting.
