

Watercolor Veil Painting

A Series of 5 Classes

with

Pamela Whitman, M.A., Painting Therapist

Certified in the artistic and therapeutic approach of Liane Collot d'Herbois, based on the work of Rudolf Steiner and J.W. von Goethe

We will learn the basic techniques of Veil Painting, also known as Illuminism, where color is built up on our painting through successive washes of luminous, transparent watercolor.

Working with the laws of light, color and darkness,
we will learn to perceive the world around us –
and ourselves - with new eyes.

We will first create a color “atmosphere” and then gradually bring in form arising out of the world of color.

Artistic and practical, challenging and inspiring –
we develop ourselves as we develop our art!

All levels - no artistic expertise is required!

The cost is $20 per session,
one-time materials fee of $7 or bring your own.

Thursdays, 12:00 p.m. – 2:00 p.m.

February 10, 17, 24, March 3, 10, 2011

Location: Grass Valley Studio of Pamela Whitman
